WILL THE GOVERNOR LISTEN?

Lost Thornton Funds Prompt City Protest

Daly City's Chamber of Commerce last week sent a letter to Governor Edmund "Pat" Brown urging that Thornton Beach be developed as a recreational area for this city's residents, according to Pete Markovich, secretary-manager of the DC group.

The chamber is trying to retrieve $61,900 from the Department of Parks and Beaches, originally earmarked by the state for development of the beach. In addition to the letter to Governor Brown, requests were sent to San Mateo State Senator Richard Dolwig and San Francisco Mayor George Christopher. Markovich noted that 200 yards of the land is in San Francisco and thus the letter to Christopher. Assemblyman Louis Francis has pledged full support to retain the Thornton Beach funds.

The city's failure to expedite the Thornton Beach project before the state deadline last July on using the allocated funds resulted in the $61,900 grant being diverted. The state parks chief said damaged drainage pipes off old Coast Highway above the beach and near the beach access road made development of the beach too costly unless the drainage pipes were repaired and the situation corrected by the persons responsible for the pipes.

This "responsibility" never was ascertained by the city, according to the state. Then the July deadline passed and the state said the Thornton Beach funds would be used elsewhere in the county's beach development program.

Markovich said the Westlake Improvement Association committee led by Wayne Stevens, 3 Skyline drive, hopes to obtain the city council chambers for an open meeting about Thornton Beach with all organized groups attending.

"There is $400,000 allocated by the state to San Mateo County for beach and park development and there is no reason our portion of $61,900 should be channeled into projects outside of Daly City," Markovich declared.

The chamber last week also discussed the off-street parking problem on Mission street, saying that a "Parking Authority" was set up by the council several years ago but not much has been done toward major off-street parking facilities.

More than $150,000 collected in parking meter revenue was

Vista Mar Slope, Erosion Project Will Be Costly

In a combined action-study meeting last Thursday, Jefferson Elementary District trustees authorized the administration to open bids on September 17 for an estimated $61,741 Vista Mar School slope stabilization and erosion control job.

After bids are opened the state department of finance and allocation board will look over the figures submitted. The $61,741 includes the architect's fee.

The erosion problem at the southeast corner of the Southgate avenue plant has been a financial worry to the district from the time the circular school was first sketched on the drawing board.

The board also awarded the contract for pupil insurance to the firm of Myers, Stevens and Company at a rate of $1.50 per student. Superintendent Rich-

Public School Pupils Return Next Monday

Daly City's parochial school youngsters returned to classrooms this week and their public school comrades will do likewise next Monday.

The fall semester "begins in earnest" next week for Jefferson High's anticipated flock of 1350 pupils and for an estimated 1650 at hilltop Westmoor High.

All Jefferson and Westmoor students, reminds Director of Curriculum John Ivan, are to report directly to their gymnasiums where they will receive further instructions. Registration, testing and orientation were conducted this week.

Regular classes begin at Westmoor at 8:15 a.m. and at Jefferson starting at 8:25 o'clock in the morning.

Jefferson Elementary District's 13 schools expect 7284 youngsters when the first bell sounds next week.

Petrocchi To Appoint Police Lieutenant From Four Sergeants

Police Chief Roland Petrocchi today announced the order of finish of the four sergeants taking the exam for the new position of lieutenant on the Daly City force.

"We want to make sure we touch all bases and are carefully screening all the records before making an appointment," Petrocchi said. After his appointment is made the choice will go before the City Council for their approval.

David Hansen was first on the list, followed by Jack Walsh, Bruno Conci and Henry Sundermann. Sundermann has the most time on the force, joining in early 1941. Walsh is next from the standpoint of service, coming into the fold on June 1, 1947. Hansen started on April 1, 1949, and Conci on October 16, 1951.

Petrocchi said the appointment will be made by the end of this week.

Westlake Woman 'Threatened' In Slain Cop Case

Mrs. Dorothea M. Murphy, 35 Wavecrest drive, a possible witness in the prosecution of Alexander Robillard for the slaying of a San Mateo County police officer, Sunday reported to Daly City police that she received a threatening phone call.

The 27-year-old woman told Officer Jeff Wetmore that a soft-spoken male asked her over the phone, "Do you work for the department of motor vehicles?" When she replied that she did, he said, "You identified a close friend of mine ... your days are numbered."

Mrs. Murphy is the clerk who checked out the application for a driver's license that was found by the body of slain police officer Eugene Doran of Hillsborough.

'MISSING PERSON' WAS IN CUSTODY OF DAN CUPID

A missing persons report became obsolete last Tuesday when a Daly City father learned that his daughter had eloped to Reno.

Louis Rios, 63 Peoria street, notified police at 2:33 a.m. that his daughter—who had left at noon the day before to go to the beach and a show—married Ronald Burr, 21, 163 Park street, San Francisco.

Anne Marie Rios, 17, a St. John's School student, became Mrs. Burr in Reno.

Hospital 'Harmony' Meeting Scheduled Tonight In Colma

A joint meeting of groups seeking a north county hospital is scheduled this Thursday night at Colma Intermediate School Library, Hillside and Market streets, starting at 8 p.m.

The Physicians Hospital Committee of Westlake has called the session. Invited are council representatives of Daly City, South San Francisco, Pacifica and delegates from adjacent unincorporated areas.

Dr. Sanford Marcus of the Physicians Committee is in charge of the joint meeting.

New Road Tax For County?

County supervisors were praised by one and all last month when they set the new fiscal property tax rate four cents lower than the '58-'59 levy.

But Tuesday the possibility of another county tax was aired by County Engineer Don Wilson in a report to supervisors in Redwood City.

Wilson proposed a 20-cent special tax to raise funds for "critical road deficiencies." He says current funds aren't enough to maintain a steady road improvements program. The upkeep of existing primary and secondary roads and highways is a bulging annual expenditure, he emphasized.

The county engineer pointed out that the road tax would give the county an additional $200,000 a year for road maintenance. Each incorporated city would receive funds from the county to take care of local road projects. A bond issue no doubt would have to be considered, Wilson explained.

The supervisors made little comment on his proposal. They have ordered more study and discussion on the idea.

'SEVERAL DISCREPANCIES'

Hupf Demands General Audit

Explosive "discrepancies" in Daly City's fiscal budget—topped by the padding of the city payroll via the appointment of some 11 unauthorized employees—will be thrown in the laps of the City Council this Thursday night by City Attorney Paul Hupf, acting city manager.

Hupf informed this newspaper exclusively today that he and City Finance Director Joseph Arch, backed by a report from special auditors Charles Ethel and Leonard Bullis, have discovered discrepancies and shortcomings and the payroll padding after careful and step-by-step examination of the city's books. Their investigation began after the council's ouster of City Manager George W. Watts early last month.

Hupf said the hiring of the 11 unauthorized men—mostly in the public works department—was just one of the discrepancies that should be explained by the council.

"I'm going to demand that the council authorize an immediate general audit by an outside firm," Hupf declared, "to bring all the facts to light and to determine if there are more discrepancies."

Hupf said the assignment of the 11 employees alone was a matter of "grave concern." Since the new fiscal year began on July 1, these 11 unauthorized workers have been paid a total of $7329 in salaries.

"If these non-budgeted employees are kept on the job," Hupf explained, "it would represent a leak of $45,000 a year—of public money that was not designated for their employment."

Hupf said he has ordered the dismissal of the unauthorized employees, effective next Tuesday, September 15.

"The only conclusion we can come to, and rightfully so," Hupf continued, "is that there has been sheer carelessness on the part of the city administration in the matter of detailing expenditures in the budget and in following the budget."

Hupf added that the addition of the 11 employees is a "misrepresentation to citizens" and that during the last fiscal year, according to the special auditors and Arch, more money was spent than was budgeted by the administration.

"I believe," Hupf emphasized," that a general audit will bring a full disclosure of all questionabie procedures in the budget, and is necessary to safeguard the taxpayers."

This newspaper has consistently warned in editorials the past several years against city budget padding and the creation of unnecessary municipal jobs. The local press feels that all city expenditures should be strictly accounted for as a basic protection to taxpayers.

The main protection citizens and the council have in the matter of budget authenticity and strict adherence to budget limits is through the reports of

Councilmen Meet Tonight, Monday

Daly City councilmen have a study session scheduled this Thursday night at 75 Wellington avenue, starting at 8 o'clock. Next Monday night they will convene for their regular meeting, same time and same place.

All city council meetings—with the lone exception of personnel discussions—are open to the public, reminds City Attorney Paul Hupf, temporary city manager.

Steel Strike Is Delaying Factor On DC Schools

Architect Mario Ciampi Tuesday night told Jefferson Elementary School District trustees that the steel strike could hold up work at all sites in the district.

"The construction company at the Fernando Rivera site said they have only enough steel to last approximately three weeks," Ciampi said. "The situation will probably reach the same depths later and houd up construction, depending on whether or not the steel strike is ended.

"Steel beams are not the only consideration. There are various other uses for steel, down to the usage of nails. The steel strike will definitely effect building of schools unless it is settled," Ciampi noted.

Ciampi also answered questions on the M. Pauline Brown School building report which he had submitted earlier. The 13-acre site, located on the north side of Eastmoor avenue, between Santa Paula drive and St. Francis boulevard, has few unusual features and its plan should pass the state architect's department quickly, Ciampi commented.

Tiny Girl Injured After Running Into Car On Hillcrest

David J. Schooley, 39, 298 Chenery street, San Francisco, stopped his auto last Thursday afternoon at Hillcrest drive near Santa Barbara avenue when he felt something hit the right rear fender of his car. He stopped and saw a small girl running from next to his car.

The mechanic called officer Robert Sims who questioned the girl at her home, 119 Hillcrest. Janet Jennings, 6, said she had walked between two parked cars and into the car. She was treated at Junipero Serra Hospital for bruises on the right side of her face.

Footballer Fumbles Game With Cops

NO JOY FOR BOY RIDER!

"I always wanted to be a policeman," said 17-year-old Thomas E. Coop, 463 D street, after he went "joy riding" in a police vehicle and then brought it back to the driveway of the police station at 75 Wellington avenue.

Coop, a former center for the Jeff High football team and currently attending College of San Mateo, took the auto of Officer Robert Sims who had returned to the station to relieve dispatcher Parr so the latter could eat.

When Sims returned to the police driveway where he parked the car at 9:25 last Friday, it was gone. Coop had taken the four-door sedan.

The boy notified police by the car's radio when he said, "Can you hear me? Can anyone hear me? I stole one of your police cars."

At 10 p.m. Sergeant David Hansen saw the car pull into the original parking spot it had occupied earlier. Coop politely asked Hansen how to work the foot emergency brake as the car was rolling backward down the hill. When he halted the auto Hansen arrested him.

Coop was brought to Hillcrest Juvenile Detention Home on a "joy riding" charge. He apparently found it takes more that a car to boceme a policeman.

6th Annual DC Flower Spectacle

Traditional fanfare will open the sixth annual Daly City Garden Club "Flower Show," this Sunday at War Memorial Community Center.

Mayor Edward Dennis and Miss Daly City (Pat Strasser) will share ribbon-cutting honors.

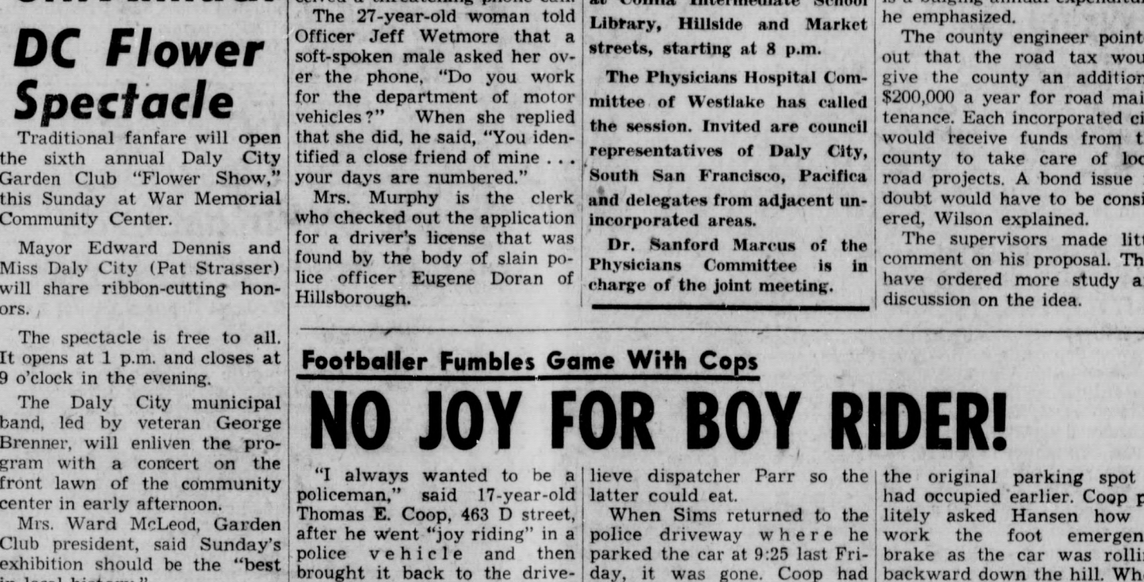
The spectacle is free to all. It opens at 1 p.m. and closes at 9 o'clock in the evening.

The Daly City municipal band, led by veteran George Brenner, will enliven the program with a concert on the front lawn of the community center in early afternoon.

Mrs. Ward McLeod, Garden Club president, said Sunday's exhibition should be the "best in local history."

The DC Club has won several regional and state awards for the caliber of its exhibits in various competitions.

The work of the group's Junior Gardeners will be one of the show's many features.



DALY CITY Garden Club's sixth annual flower show? "Sounds good," says the 17-months-old Valencia triplets of East Vista avenue. Mom will take Yolanda, Brenda and Annette to nearby DC War Memorial Building this Sunday for the big flower spectacle. Identifying the tots left to right is not easy, so take your pick. The Garden Club's exhibition opens at 1 p.m. Sunday and closes at 9 p.m. It's free and residents will be treated to a concert by the Daly City Band during the afternoon.

Auto Strikes Coaster, Four Youngsters Hurt

Four children on a coaster were seriously injured last Thursday at 1 p.m. when they were struck by an auto driven by Daniel Mysel, 50, of 836 87th street, Colma.

Mysel, a civilian employee at the National Guard Armory, said the coaster came out of Orange street at the Market street intersection and he struck them before he could stop, according to the police report.

Officer Richard de Losa said that although the man admitted he was going 30 miles per hour he does not believe that this is enough of an excess speed to warrant a citation.

The four children, all Lausanne avenue residents, who were injured in front of the Colma School are:

Gary Bellotti, age 11, 879 Lausanne; Faustino Regino, age 7, 891 Lausanne; Thomas Boyle, age 7, 895 Lausanne; and Albert Luzzi, age 7, 856 Lausanne.

All were seriously injured and taken by M&D Ambulance to Junipero Serra Hospital. A witness, Urban Pope, 168 East Vista avenue, told police he saw one of the boys flying through the air when the auto struck the coaster.

Alameda Driver 'Falls Asleep,' Rams Drugstore

A newsboy helped police to apprehend a driver who had driven into the front of McGraw's Drug Store, 6300 Mission street, last Thursday at 5:26 a.m.

Arnold Sergeant, 14, 27 Hillcrest drive, took down the license number of the auto of James E. Johnson, 40, of Alameda, after he had left the scene of the accident.

Johnson was found parked at Templeton and Mission streets by Special Officer Richard Leahy and Officer William Schumacher. Johnson, a chief clerk for the Tidewater Oil Company, told police, "I drove up Mission street going south and fell asleep at the wheel. I didn't realize what happened."

Police found considerable damage to Johnson's auto as well as glass from the broken doors of the drugstore on Johnson's car.

San Jose Teen Pair Injured In Freak Accident On Mission

A driver's sleeve caught the steering knob on his vehicle's steering wheel and he and his passenger were taken to Junipero Serra Hospital Monday at 3:30 a.m. after his auto struck a power pole and knocked down a "no parking" sign.

David Glan, the driver, and Jimmy Guy McLain, both 16-year-old San Jose high school students, were injured. Glan was going north on Mission street in Daly City at 25 miles per hour and believed another car was passing too closely on his left, he said. When he swerved slightly to the right his sleeve got caught and he lost control of the car.

Glan was treated for a bleeding nose and a cut on his lip. McLain cut his ear and suffered a fractured pelvis. He was later transferred to Santa Clara County Hospital.

An accident doesn't just happen. There is always a cause, declares the U.S. Public Health Service. Good safety habits will eliminate many of these causes.

WHAT'S DOING

C. R. Johnson, your Telephone Manager in Daly City

A game that can save lives will be used, starting this year, by the 300 students in the Jefferson Elementary School District. The game, called "The Safest Route to School", was made by Pacific Telephone and is used to illustrate to youngsters hazardous traffic situations they should watch out for. The safety game board is shown above being presented by Clay Johnson, Daly City Telephone Manager. Accepting the game (left to right) are Richard L. Foster, Superintendent of the school district; Dr. David Shapiro, Assistant Superintendent, and T. F. Noonan, A Trustee of the District and also a telephone company man. Pacific Telephone hopes that the game will help to reduce the number of traffic accidents among the children in our city.

September's back-to-school time in a lot of families. Time to remember that a long distance call is a fine way to keep in touch with the kids away from home. Why not plan now to set aside a certain night each week for a telephone visit with your favorite student. And station-to-station rates are lower after 6 p.m. weekdays and all day Sunday, you know — even lower than you might think. Pacific Telephone

COPS SURPRISE MISSION STREET CAR CLOUTERS

Two unemployed 19-year-olds were apprehended after attempting to take two tires from Neville's new car lot at Bismark and Mission streets Monday at 2 a.m.

Joseph R. Clark, 16 Southridge road, and Dewey A. Perkins, 561 Northridge road, San Francisco, not only admitted the theft but gave Daly City police the names of friends who had robbed the auto dealer on previous occasions.

Five names of Hunters Point area residents were given to police by the two men.

Special Officer Richard Leahy found Perkins loitering at the Union Service Station, which is located next to the lot, and told him to go home at 1:30 a.m.

When Leahy saw Perkins ride by later, he and Officer Jeff Wetmore stopped the vehicle at Price and Mission streets. They noticed the two men had sawdust particles on their clothes and in their hair.

Because Neville's lot has sawdust, the two men were handcuffed and brought to police headquarters. Wetmore found that two tires were removed from autos parked in the car lot and were hidden under a third vehicle.

Perkins and Clark, driver of the car, were arrested on theft charges after they admitted trying to get away with the tires "in order to make $15."

South San Francisco Police Chief Exam Matter Of Debate?

South San Francisco will have to wait a bit longer before an appointment is made of a new police chief to succeed Louis Belloni.

Pleasure

THE PLEASURE and delight of knowledge and learning far surpasses all other in nature. For, shall the pleasures of the affections so exceed the pleasure of the sense, as much as the obtaining of desire or victory exceeds a song or a dinner? And must not of consequence the pleasure of the intellect or understanding exceed the pleasures of the affections? We see in all other pleasures there is satiety, and after they be used, their freshness departs; which shows well that they are but deceits of pleasure, and not pleasures; and that it was the novelty which pleased, and not the quality.—Francis Bacon, British, 17th century.

If men in this life only have hope; if in this life only can they enjoy, it is not strange or unreasonable, that they should seek their happiness by avoiding all things that disease them here, and by pursuing all that delight them; wherein it will be no wonder to find variety and difference. For if there be no prospect beyond the grave, the inference is certainly right—"Let us eat and drink"—let us enjoy what we delight in—"for tomorrow we shall die."—John Locke, British philosopher.

Philosophy does not contend against natural pleasures, provided they be moderate; and only preaches moderation, not a total abstinence. The power of its resistance is employed against those that are adulterate and strange. Philosophy says that the appetites of the body ought not to be augmented by the mind, and ingeniously warns us not to stir up hunger by saturity; not to stuff instead of merely filling, the belly to avoid all enjoyments that may bring us to want; and all meat and drinks that bring thirst and hunger.—Michel de Montaigne (16th century), creator of the essay.

FHA Head Describes Standards

By JULIAN H. ZIMMERMAN
Commissioner
Federal Housing Administration

One of the chief goals of FHA is to help provide the American public with good housing that is comfortable and durable.

To achieve this goal, FHA has set up minimum property standards for building materials and construction methods used in houses to be sold under an FHA-insured mortgage.

These standards, which went into effect throughout the nation on July 1, are in general more flexible than were FHA's former minimum property requirements.

Define Minimum Quality

They cover all sorts of things from the shingles on the roof down to the concrete in the foundation, and even include design, drainage, and grading. They define the minimum level of quality acceptable to FHA and to the Veterans Administration, keeping in mind the objective of reaching the needs of purchasers in low-level income brackets and at the same time insuring full value for every dollar expended.

Julian H. Zimmerman

I am often asked how FHA arrived at these standards. The best answer is that generally accepted standards developed by nationally recognized authorities were relied on to determine if materials were suitable, how they should be tested and assembled, and how they should be expected to hold up when in use.

Requirements Rigid

An example of such a national authority is the American Wood Window Institute, which affixes its seal of approval to wood windows that are designed and manufactured according to the rigid requirements of the U.S. Department of Commerce. To be acceptable to FHA, all stock windows of ponderosa pine, for example, must meet the commercial standards of the Commerce Department.

The Federal Housing Administration, in the 25 years it has been operating, has helped to raise the standards of home construction and has, through its various programs, put home ownership within the reach of many millions of American families.

SEVEN TEACHERS HIRED BY JEFF ELEMENTARIES

Jefferson Elementary District school trustees Tuesday night completed the hiring of teachers by approving seven persons for positions.

At present Superintendent Richard Foster says there are three long-term substitutes and five more will be hired.

Those hired were Andrea Herreid, Ernest A. Kaeselau, Ruth W. Lazore, Relly Nachmias, George Ward, Lisa Pumphrey and Elsa Louise White. The resignation of Lupe R. Clements was accepted with regret.

Foster was asked by the California Medical Associaton to organize and moderate two panel presentations on case study problems related to cooperation between educators and the medical profession, by that organization at Riverside, October 2 and 3, and in Berkeley, October 23 and 24.

Mrs. Katherine Mullen and other board members gave permission and said they did not wish "to bind Foster to the district." A a representative of the district, Foster could well be able to help the Jefferson Elementary board publicly.

Mrs. Mullen and other trustees agreed that Foster could attend any meetings, at his own discretion, as long as they did not interfere with elementary school business. "We are glad to have a man of Richard Foster's ability on our administrative staff; and happy to know that he is being sought for these various meetings," Mrs. Mullen said.

Wealth

BECAUSE of an insatiable love of gold and silver, every man will stoop to any art or contrivance, seemly or unseemly, in the hope of becoming rich; and will make no objection to performing any action, holy, or unholy and utterly base, if only like a beast he has the power of eating and drinking all kinds of things, and procuring for himself in every sort of way the gratification of his lusts.

Let this, then, be deemed one of the causes which prevent states from pursuing in an efficient manner any noble aim, but makes the orderly and temperate part of mankind into merchants, and captains of ships, and servants, and converts the valiant sort into thieves and burglars, and robbers of temples, and violent, tyrannical persons.—Plato (428-348 B.C.).

And you, sir, must drive covetousness out of your heart. For the Apostle says that "The love of money is the root of all evil." And, trust me, a covetous man cannot judge correctly, nor can he think well, save only to the furtherance of his covetousness; and that, in truth, can never really be accomplished, because the richer he becomes, the greater desire he has for yet a larger abundance.—Chaucer (1340-1400).

The desire for food is limited in every man by the narrow capacity of his stomach; but the desire of conveniences and ornaments of building, dress, equipage, and household furniture seems to have no limit or certain boundary. Those, therefore, who have the command of more food than they themselves can consume, are always willing to exchange the surplus, or, what is the same thing, the price of it, for gratification of this other kind. What is over and above satisfying the limited desire is given for the amusement of those desires which cannot be satisfied but seem to be altogether endless.—Adam Smith (from Wealth of Nations, 1776).

Garibaldi Street Homeowners Explain Protest On Rezoning

(Editor's Note: Following is an open letter to Daly City residents from homeowners on Garibaldi street who are protesting council approval of rezoning that will bring apartments to an already congested street. The council has set public hearing on the matter next Monday night at 75 Wellington avenue, starting at 8 p.m.)

On Monday, September 14 at p.m. at City Hall, the City Council of Daly City will hold public hearing on the application (from recent purchasers) to re-zone certain lots on Garibaldi street from an R-1 single family residential) to an R-3 (apartment house) zone. On this same date the council will also consider whether or not to grant a variance permitting construction on these lots up to the property line.

We, the undersigned homeowners and taxpayers of Garibaldi street, are deeply concerned over the prospect of this re-zoning and the inevitable consequences which will result, should the re-zoning be granted. Our concern stems from the following facts and considerations:

Garibaldi street is a dead end, fifty foot street (thirty feet from curb to curb), some 525 feet in length. Its one and only outlet is on the 7200 block of heavily traveled Mission street. At the intersection with Mission street are an ice cream and food stand on one corner and both a used truck lot and church (formerly a fruit and vegetable store) on the other. Zoning on the street, except at the intersection with Mission is R-1 and all of the homes are single family dwellings. There are no facilities for cars to turn around on Garibaldi street other than by turning into and backing out of sidewalks and driveways.

The re-zoning application involves approximately 13 lots on one side of the street adjacent to the dead end and furthest from the Mission street outlet. On these 13 lots there would be constructed some 72 apartment units, primarily of the studio and one bedroom type. Construction would be right up to the property line.

It is our feeling that apartment houses may be fine in their place but that Garibaldi street is not adapted nor suitable for this type of development. The crowding of 72 units on one end and side of this narrow dead-end street will result in a congestion that will be dangerous not only for us, the present homeowners, but also for the apartment house residents. Not only will we and our children be endangered from the abnormal traffic load but there will also be a pyramiding of fire hazard and police problems.

On August 11, 1959, the City Planning Commission (three members present) approved both the re-zoning and the variance. This was done despite the protest of all the homeowners and residents of Garibaldi street, despite a petition signed by some 56 homeowners in the immediate area, and despite our arguments with respect to the overcrowding of a narrow street, danger to our children from an abnormal traffic load, buildings not conforming to present character of this street, fire hazard, police problems, lack of public necessity and convenience for these apartments, spot zoning, etc.

While it is true that the lots under consideration for construction are an eyesore at the present time, we feel that we should not be held responsible or punished for this situation. We do not own the property and the present owners who are applying for re-zoning have made no effort to correct the condition. Neither do we subscribe to the thinking that "anything would be an improvement." The "anything" in this case would be something worse than we now have and something that we will have to live with the rest of our lives.

Neither can we see any urgent or impelling public need or public benefit resulting from this re-zoning and we sincerely doubt any contention of benefit to the immediate area or Daly City as a whole. Rather, we feel that benefit will accrue solely to those who presently own the property in question. What we are seeking, on the other hand, is to maintain reasonable safety for our families and ourselves and to retain the underlying considerations which originally prompted us to purchase and to live on Garibaldi street.

This, good citizens of Daly City, is our story. What is happening to us today may well happen across the street or next door to you tomorrow.

'War Memorial' Name Challenged By Legionnaires

It has come to the attention of this organization that your publications have been erroneously referring to Daly City Community Center building as "War Memorial".

This is misleading to the public and your readers, and would have a detrimental effect in the event Daly City should wish to promote or build a War Memorial building at some future date.

In the interest of the community may we ask that this practice be discontinued and the Community Center building referred to as such.

This is being called to your attention with a copy to the Mayor, in order that he may refer same to the attention of the City Council.

Yours very truly,
Felix Foreman
Adjutant
Legion Post 410
Daly City

(Editor's Note: Dee Van Nest director of Daly City's Parks and Recreation Department, confirms that a plaque in the building dated 1952 refers to "War Memorial Community Center" and tells that the center was dedicated to Daly City servicemen who lost their lives in World War II. Van Nest adds that the city parks and recreation commission has stipulated that War Memorial Community Center is the official name of the building.)

Chamber To Erect Population Signs

Two Chamber of Commerce signs boasting Daly City's new official population count of 38,700 are to be erected soon at the El Camino Real and Skyline entrances to the community.

Parkes Harris, Chamber president, said the old signs around the city are "way out of date on population."

Daly City is the third largest municipality in San Mateo County, according to the latest special census here.

BIG lift is given TV starlet Peggy Corbett (Lineup Show) by Daly City Police Chief Roland Petrocchi (right) and Capt. Roy Beecher as the local lassie appeared at Westlake Bowl to boost the fund-raising Police Athletic League bowling tourney. Peggy is pinning her hopes on outstanding response for the tourney that ends on September 19. All proceeds go to PAL to buy uniforms and equipment for Daly City youngsters.

Equipment & Clubhouse Immediate PAL Goals

An unusual experiment by the Daly City Police Department, launched two years ago, is paying handsome dividends. Juvenile delinquency has taken a sharp dive. And what's more, the cop on the corner is regarded by the city's kids as a buddy.

The magic formula is called PAL, for Police Athletic League, and because the project—providing an active boys team sports program—has been an overwhelming success the policemen are calling for a community team of citizens and merchants to help the boys raise funds to build a clubhouse.

Success of the fund-raising project hinges on a benefit bowling tournament, now being held at Swanson's Westlake Bowl. Five thousand dollars worth of prizes have been donated by Daly City merchants.

Fred Bertetta, co-chairman leader and father of three, pulled the trigger for the organization in April of 1957 and Police Chief Roland Petrocchi, Captain Roy Beecher, and the rest of the staff provided the rest of the ammunition to start the league. Other Peninsula cities and San Francisco have followed suit, organizing their own leagues in the past two of the fund-drive predicts success because of the enthusiasm already shown by all concerned.

"With the police department and merchants pushing the project the way they are and with the bowlers clamoring to compete, it's bound to be a success," Bertetta said.

The tournament began August 23 and will run through September 19. Anyone may enter and the cost is $2.75 per person for the three-game series. Bowlers may bowl at any time at their convenience. Men and women with averages will be handicapped the difference from their 1959 Blue Book average and 200. Those without an average will compete in the novice class on a scratch basis.

The Daly City Police Athletic League has been a pioneer in California. It is the first in the state to receive an official state charter. Police Officer John Coleman, a Boy Scout years.

PAL soon caught the fancy of other Daly City officials too as many found themselves giving time and energy to further the project. Among them are Mayor Edward Dennis and Councilmen Bob St. Clair, Joe Verducci, Micheal DeBernardi, and Francis Pacelli.

The League began when Coleman talked to Father Murray of Catholic Social Service, and to William Carozza, both of whom were familiar with the famous New York City Police Athletic League. The Daly City police officers took over from there to pattern their club after the successful New York league. Judge Frank Blum of San Mateo County issued the charter and within a year 450 boys were members. Currently membership stands at 600, with a long line of boys waiting to fit into baseball and other uniforms.

"It's been a long hard struggle to make it the success it is," Coleman explained.

The police department has staged talent shows and battled the city's firemen on the baseball field to raise money for the club, as well as donate many off duty hours to help coach baseball, basketball, touch football, swimming, boxing and tumbling. The money is used to provide uniforms and athletic equipment.

But Coleman gives the credit to local citizens. "Our 41 man police force couldn't possibly do the job alone," he explains. It's the people of Daly City who have come forth with their financial contributions and who have volunteered as coaches for various teams. Right now 35 volunteer coaches donate their time to assist the police officers who work on PAL activities during their off-duty hours.

PAL is living up to its name too, Coleman says. Often a boy will come to one of the officers with a question or problem. Before the League was formed boys would just pass a policeman quickly when they met. And this summer the police force has had little trouble with malicious mischief. Some of the boys who are on PAL teams had run into trouble with the law before, but none of these have repeated their offences, Coleman said.

The needs of PAL are evidenced by the number of boys who have been unable to participate in the program because of lack of funds for uniforms and equipment. Six basketball teams were outfitted, while enough boys to form 20 more teams had to be turned down. Eight touch football teams were fielded, but again it was necessary to refuse almost 200 boys the opportunity to participate. The biggest disappointment to the boys in the area came in the start of the baseball season when it was necessary to turn down more than 150 boys in the midget group alone.

There are three groups in the organization: midgets, 8 to 12 years; juniors, 12 to 14; and seniors, 14 to 18. Aside from athletics there are field trips, parties, father-son swimming nights and other events.

Injured Tot's Mother Lauds Police Officer

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

I would like very much to publicly thank the Daly City Police Department, especially Officer Charles Munday, for his help on Friday, September 4, when my daughter, Christie, was injured very badly while riding on her coaster.

With the wonderful and fast assistance of Officer Munday, we were able to get medical attention within a few minutes.

I do not think the people of Daly City realize how many calls of this sort our Police Department receives each day. For one (myself), I'm very thankful we have such wonderful service as they give.

Sincerely,
Mrs. N. C. Chauses

League Women Sponsor Meet On U. S. Policy

Mrs. Donald Messer, president of the San Francisco League of Women Voters, has announced that a community meeting on United States Foreign Policy will be sponsored by the League in cooperation with San Francisco State College.

The meeting will be held the evening of September 16 on the State College campus. Co-chairmen will be Mrs. James Abrahamson, San Francisco League board member in charge of the local foreign policy study; Mrs. Willard Norber, and Dr. Wayne MacKenzie Stevens, director of the School of World Business and International Development at State college.

The League of Women Voters is currently in the midst of a thorough two year appraisal of U. S. foreign policy and aid. Their national officers have been asked to testify at recent Senate hearings and investigations on the economic development of newly developing countries. One of their findings has been that a better informed citizenry will produce more workable plans for the future of world peace.

Consequently, the League as public service, expects this meeting to relate foreign aid to the individual citizen whose dollars must pay the cost of the programs. Experts on financing foreign aid will participate in the program, answering questions posed by all interested persons.

Postmaster Says 'Mailed Obscenity' Taking Its Toll In Delinquency

The vile, nation-wide mail order traffic in obscene materials has played a flagrant part in the alarming rise in juvenile delinquency in the United States, according to Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy of Daly City.

Murphy said that this point has been emphasized once again by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield in a recent statement before a Congressional Committee studying mail order obscenity racket and its vicious effects.

Postmaster Murphy noted that "time after time, in police investigations of armed robbery, extortion, embezzlement and forgery, it has been found that those guilty were youthful collectors of highly obscene pictures and materials."

In his testimony before the committee the postmaster general emphasized that: "Sociologists and psychologists tell us that exposure of children to pornographic pictures and literature may often lead to sexual abberations."

"Any experienced law enforcement officer," Summerfield continued, "can give you the grim information that virtually every sex criminal has a record of affinity for obscene photographs and other such filth."

Postmaster Murphy pointed out that this latter fact is what leads to the terrible indirect results of this sadistic traffic.

"Many children who are never exposed to obscene material," he said, "can nevertheless become victims of the criminals who are affected by it. They can fall prey to the perverted imagination of the man who starts by pulling a little girl's braids and ends by taking her life."

Postmaster Murphy stated flatly that this racket, which now operates at a half-billion dollar a year level, will keep on growing unless the members of every community take direct action to stamp it out.

He predicted that sex crimes wil become far more prevalent than they are even today, as the filth racketeers seek to pervert the minds of more and more children, and concluded with Mr. Summerfield's warning that, if this trend continues, "We can expect an ultimate breakdown in moral strength, order and decency in this country."

But, Postmaster Murphy emphasized, "There is something each parent can do—action the parent can take to help prevent his children and children elsewhere from falling into the clutches of these racketeers."

His advice to parents is to take these steps:

1. If the contents of mail arriving in your home are obscene, save all the material including the envelope in which the material is received.

2. Put the material and the envelope promptly in the hands of your postmaster, either personally or by mail.

Postmaster Murphy assures parents that the Post Office Department will take immediate action to investigate and, where warranted, to bring about prosecution of the parties responsible for the mailing. Conviction can result in sentences of up to 10 years in jail and heavy fines.

And he adds that "if parents throughout the country take these three steps, our local community, and our entire nation, can look confidently to the day when this insidious menace will be stamped out."

ANTELOPE

The pronghorn antelope's eyes are as big as a horse's and it can see small objects several miles away, according to the National Automobile Club.

AROUND the world in 20 books went these two young travelers. During the summer their reading consisted of the "magic carpet" theme of Daly City Public Library. Norman Capper and Elizabeth Cecchi, both 7 years old, accepted most-books-read pins from Mrs. Elsie Garrison, a representative of DC's Friends of the Library. Librarian Rose Marie Kraus (left) admires the children's achievement.

The Town Record

By ROY HURLBERT

This is supposed to be the month of decision by Henry Doelger on St. Ignatius High School's long plea for a dozen-acre site of Westlake Basin land for a spanking new parochial high school.

The "talks" have been going on for many, many moons. And Doelger's asking price, we hear, is about $50,000 higher than when he was first approached by the good SF fathers.

Henry had wanted to use the land for plush $30,000 to $40,000 homes since the locale is lakeside and therefore that much more desirable.

Wtih the exception of a few dedicated and no-strings-attached individuals, Daly City's many appointive commissionerships are filled by warm bodies who aren't doing much of a job.

There ought to be a way to make even political plums more productive.

After all, good commissions are an asset to any municipality.

Poor ones are useless and make logical wonder folks if commissions are necessary in the first place.

The Police Athletic League bowling tourney, hosted by hospitable Johnny Swanson and his manager, Jim Grealish, should make ALL Daly Cityans feels particularly proud.

People in Westlake are beginning to remember that they are a part of DC and the old timers are willing to admit that Westlake is part of the municipality, too.

EXECS MEET NEXT WEEK

Jefferson High PTA Schedules Big Tea

The first executive board meeting for the Jefferson High PTA will take place next Thursday, September 17, at 8 p.m. in the Faculty room.

Plans will be discussed for the September 24 Freshmen Mother's Tea and reception to be held in the school cafeteria at 2 p.m.

The purpose of the affair is to welcome mothers of the newly entering freshmen students, as well as gather together the past year's PTA members for a jolly, informal occasion.

High School Principal John Mongan, Girls' Dean Miss Ada Wood, Boys' Dean Donnal Behm, and the whole school faculty will be there to welcome the newcomers.

More than 1300 invitations have been prepared by membership chairman, Mrs. Marian Plansky, and will be distributed to students who will be instructed to take them home to the parents.

Further plans for the tea will be announced at a later date.

All executive board members are urged to attend next Thursday's meeting, as there will be a great deal of important business under discussion.

Mrs. Dora Kusber, president, Mrs. Marian Plansky, membership chairman, and Mrs. Servart Ojakian, publicity chairman, will act as co-hostesses at next week's meeting.

Refreshments will be served. For any information concerning PTA, phone Mrs. Kusber, PL 5-3379.

Daly City Library Gives Kids Free Passage 'Around The World'

Although their names did not appear on any official passenger list of the great transportation systems outbound from here, it is quite possible that 23 junior Daly City-zens logged more miles to distant places and had more experiences in time and place than any of the more itinerant adults who spend their summers coming and going in auto, plane or ship.

This was mainly because of the imaginative minds and diligence of two of the city's librarians, Mrs. Loris Irick and Miss Rose Marie Kraus, who inspired the young patrons of the Public Library to embark on a summer reading program with "Magic Carpet" as the theme. As the name implies, this gave them all free rein to travel not only distances, but to explore the crafts, the stars, the sea, and all the infinite variety the Public Library has to offer.

Because of the fine direction of the program, and the enthusiastic response, Mrs. Howard Stites, president of "Friends of the Library, decided to present these travelers with a memento. (All travelers bring home souvenirs!) Mrs. Julian Cohn, in charge of the project, made all the arrangements and in cooperation with City Librarian Sam Chandler has presented each of the following with a travel memento:

Taking the "flying carpet" tour were: Elizabeth Cecchi, Rosemarie Stabile, Carolyn Person, Paula Mallett, Sandra Campbell, Melinda Gould, Linda Won, Rosa Orais, Carol Palmer, Carol Ferro, Linda Hughes, Cecilia Orais, Barbara Ferro, Jeanette Wertenberg.

Celeste Moreno, Barby Senkir, James Won, Jimmy Walker, Roger Cecchi and Lloyd Chandler. At the Westlake branch — Linda Sue Gale, Vickie Lorber and Norman Capper.

Each of these youngsters read some 20 books this summer. This might be a challenge to all who can't resist the travel folder or who long to stow away on sailing dates. The far-distant places, as these children will testify, are only as far as the Public Library.

Friends of the Library, as well as encouraging programs such as these, present many speakers and authors at their scheduled meetings that give opportunity for rare and personal contact with those whose experiences are recorded in books. So if you would be a world traveler, or would like to help sponsor a "back to books" program, why not call PL 5-3505 and secure travel information.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS OF AMERICA

Court St. Mary Here Plans Annual Birthday Celebration

By Eleanore Mumford

The "Arrivederci Roma" Fashion Show in Woodside on September 1 was a fruitful venture for the Peninsula Courts of the Catholic Daughters of America on behalf of the Archdiocesan Seminarian Burse.

Seven of Court St. Mary's officers of Daly City were in attendance along with other Court members and guests.

Plans are now nearing completion for Court St. Mary's birthday party and dinner scheduled the evening of September 22 at Brentwood Lodge. At the last meeting of Court St. Mary No. 1155, Catholic Daughters of America, Mrs. Arthur Dikas, general chairman, announced that the following ladies are assisting her with preparation for the pleasure of the court members and their guests attending that evening: Mrs. Angela Johnson, floral decor; Mrs. Edward Pribula and Mrs. Elio Ciardella, favors, decorations and setup; Mrs. William Core and Mrs. Angela Johnson, door prizes; Mrs. Elmo Pucci, meal tickets. Mrs. Carl Rollandi is assisting Mrs. Dikas with reservations, deadline being September 15.

It is recalled that Mrs. Ellis C. (Josephine) Johnson was the first Grand Regent of this, the forty-third Court in the state of California when it was instituted 29 years ago.

To put the Court on its "baby feet" at the time were 36 Charter members of whom 11 are still with the Court. Being staunch Catholic Daughters and rarely missing a meeting over all these years are three exceptional charter members — Mrs. Charlotte Ford, now of the Westlake area, who first suggested the name "St. Mary" for the new court; Mrs. Angela Johnson and her sister, Mrs. William Core, of Daly City. Mrs. Fred Wettstien Sr. of San Francisco, also a charter member, is now serving her second year as treasurer of the State Court. Other charter members include Mrs. Margaret Fields, Mrs. Helen Rode, Mrs. Anna Manning, Miss Irene Millet, Mrs. Marion Marchington, Mrs. Rose Romiguiere and Mrs. Minnie Rancatori.

The degree team of Court Golden Gate of San Francisco was in charge of the ritualistic work with Mrs. Emma Ebertz, District Deputy, installing the ten officers and six trustees. The Rev. James P. Donohoe was appointed to serve as the Court's first chaplain and with the enthusiasm of the charter members and Father Donohoe's kindly advise in its infancy, the Court grew from babyhood through the meager years of the depression and on into a full fledged court aptly holding its own in leadership among the courts in this section of the state. Its membership now exceeds 180.

It holds the distinction in that one of its members, Mrs. Milton Weckerle, held the high office of State Regent for 1954-56 term after a number of years in the other various state offices.

Through all these years countless acts of charity have been undertaken by Court St. Mary. Uppermost in the minds of these Catholic Daughters are the many phases of charitable projects that are always at their attention — supporting a priest brother, welfare agency donations, civic duties, clothing the needy, Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, cheering the aged, assisting with welfare agency duties, teaching catechism classes, engaging in mission work of various fields, First Communion outfits, church work, and on down the line in countless ways. This past term a new censor, Holy Water Pot and Sprinkler, Catafalque candlesticks and candles were donated to the home parish of the Court, Our Lady of Perpetual Help. Weekly visits are made to the Little Sisters of The Poor. These are just a few of the eleemosynary acts of the Court in the vast fields of the Catholic Daughters program.

Thus a social evening away from the business and meeting session is a welcome diversion and a good turnout is anticipated for the Court's dirthday anniversary.

THIS VERY MINUTE... THE NEW-SIZE FORD IS ON ITS WAY TO YOU!

The Falcon, the New-Size Ford, already is the most thoroughly tested and proven new car in history. This week the new Ford Falcon starts EXPERIENCE RUN, U.S.A., over every mile of numbered U.S. highway

This is not a test run in the ordinary sense of the word. For in its 3 years of development and over 3 million miles of proving, the Falcon has already passed and repassed every kind of test that could be devised.

It's been dust-tested, heat-tested, and endurance-tested on the test track at Kingman, Arizona. Wind-tested and rain-tested in the 300 mph wind tunnel at the University of Maryland. Shock-tested, curve-tested, brake-tested, noise-tested, paint-tested, stability-tested, service-tested . . . everything-tested on Ford's own proving grounds. The Falcon has already proved to engineers that it takes anything they can dish out.

Now, Experience Run, U.S.A. will show you what the Falcon can do over your kind of roads.

How many miles to the gallon? Records will be kept of every drop of gas used. Better gas mileage? The Falcon will average up to 30 miles per gallon!

On October 8, the New-size Ford will be at your Ford Dealer's . . . for you to experience. See your Ford Dealer today for more information on the Ford Falcon.

TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

This week marked an important milestone in television's forward march to bring viewers programs that are thought-provoking as well as entertaining, and equally important to bring them in prime evening time. As we predicted in our column several weeks ago, look for more informational programing by the networks this fall. ABC took the lead with an outstanding adventure-travel series, "John Gunther's High Road" which premiered last Monday evening over KGO-TV. Hosted by noted best-selling author and veteran reporter, John Gunther, the series will cover a wide range of subjects all the way from a wild elephant roundup, the hazards the first space traveler will meet, to a report on Moscow State University which will be shown this coming Monday evening.

It was our privilege to meet and talk with the distinguished producer of the program, Jerry Stagg, at a recent press preview. A most dynamic individual, he is also dedicated . . . dedicated to bringing to viewers television programs that will enrich, as well as entertain. He commented "we feel we are performing a valuable service in bringing this information to the people . . . besides it's the only show on ABC that doesn't use a gun." Mr. Stagg's background includes such fine television shows as "Pulitzer Prize Playhouse" (his own creation), "Excursion," segments of "Omnibus" and "Telephone Time."

Certainly the series is a fine public service on behalf of the sponsor, Ralston Purina Co. In addition they have prepared study guides, so teachers may use the programs as supplementary classroom assignments. Teachers may write the agency, Guild, Bascom & Bonfigli, to be placed on the mailing list.

Are you a television football widow? Don't be any longer—just tune to KQED's new "live" series "Points Before Touchdown" (Thurs., 6:30 p.m.) featuring Chuck Taylor of Stanford University and you'll learn what the game is all about. Mr. Taylor did a most professional job on the first show. We suggest that you watch each week, and at your next tea, you'll find yourself saying, "Now, my dear, if on the third down, the quarterback had just passed to the flanker back . . . "

Rudorfer Says Holy Day Seats Are Going Fast

Max Rudorfer, president of Congregation Judea, announces that calls are coming in regularly for High Holy Day seats and that a limited number remain. He strongly urges all who plan to attend these services to be held at the First Unitarian Church, Geary and Franklin streets, to call the Temple Office, PL 5-6362, immediately so that arrangements may be made to secure tickets.

Arrangements are also being made for a special Children's Service to be held at Congregation Judea Temple House in Westlake. Rabbi Irving F. Reichert and and Cantor Harold Wachter will officiate. Traditional music will be rendered by an augmented professional choir with Dr. W. Leonard Beck at the organ.

The Annual Memorial Book is now in the process of being compiled. All who are interested in having the names of their beloved departed inscribed in blessed memory may call the Temple Office to make the necessary arrangements.

The high school youth group of Congregation Judea, known as JOY, are busily engaged in preparing for their latest event, "A Sadie Hawkins Dance" scheduled for Saturday night, September 12, at the Temple House. This will be a real down-on-the-farm shindig with a country-style atmosphere including dancing, refreshments and prizes. All members and friends of JOY are invited to attend. Admission price will be nominal. Boys and girls may come "stag or drag."

NEIGHBORHOOD chairmen for the Broadmoor-Garden Village residential campaign gather at the home of Mrs. Edward Morgan to discuss plans for the United Crusade drive which is to start October 13. POLICE DANCE TO AID WIDOWS AND RELATIVES

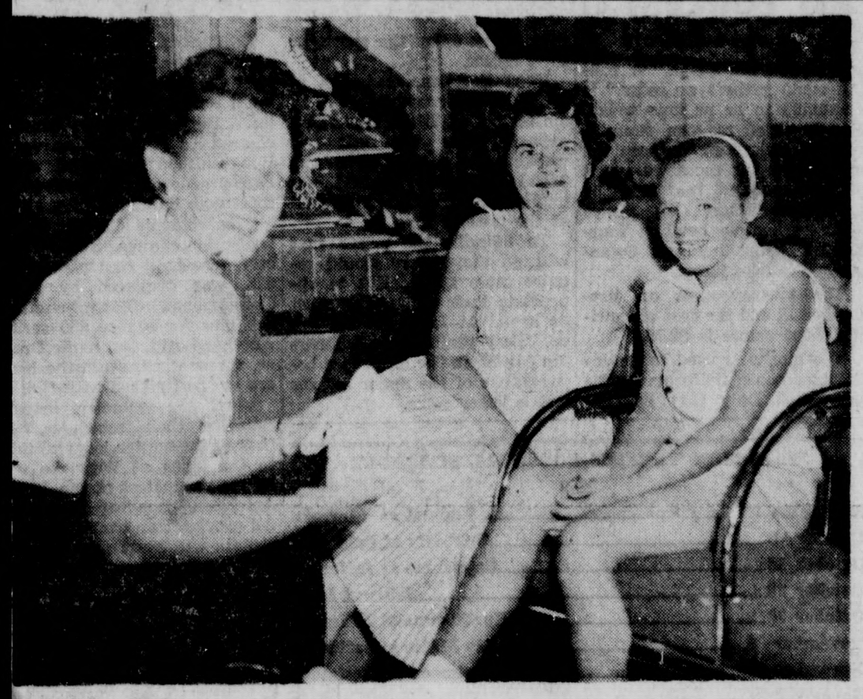
The big dance of the year on the Peninsula with all proceeds benefiting the widows and orphans fund of the Peninsula Police Officers association will be held Saturday, September 12, at Bay Meadows clubhouse.

Tickets may be purchased from any local police officer or at the door before the 9 p.m. dance. The outstanding Bay area orchestra of Russ Anthony with Dee Sautel as soloist will play for the affair.

"The association's fund has been depleted considerably in the last year due to the tragic death of Hillsborough Officer Gene Doran," said Fratis Link, president of the association.

"Response to the tickets sent out to residents so far has been disappointing," said Link. "We hope that more residents send back their two dollars for the two tickets. It is a bargain as far as a dance is concerned and benefits a most worthy cause."

Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico, discovered in 1911, are now a national park.



SEASONAL SCENE: Westlake J. C. Penney clerk Mrs. Wanda Spalding fits Laurel Rothegery for "back to school" footwear as Laurel's mother, Mrs. Grover Rothegery, looks on. Thousands of shoppers will find their way into local stores within the next few weeks to ready their children for "back to school." Going back to school may bring little joy to youngsters but to merchants it means big business which has grown steadily bigger each year with the rise in student population. Statistics released by J. C. Penney Company show that 45 million students on all levels were enrolled in school during 1958-59 and that the student population is growing at the rate of nearly two million a year. Locally, elementary and high school officials predict an enrollment increase of some 1000, bringing total student population in the two Jefferson districts to 10,500.

All Prisoners In SM County Jail Now Given Chest X-Rays On Entry

A new procedure was added this week to the routine of booking prisoners at the county jail, according to Lt. Don Hartnett, chief jailer. In addition to being fingerprinted and photographed, each person booked now gets a chest X-ray.

The program got under way with the installation in the jail of the 70mm X-ray unit formerly housed in the old health department at the court house. Jailers have been instructed in taking the X-rays.

Jail employees have been anxious for the program since the San Mateo County Tuberculosis Association conducted a demonstration program of weekly mobile X-ray visits to the cold county jail in 1956, Hartnett reports. The Association took 300 films and found one case of tuberculosis and one case of cancer. There was no room in the old jail for a stationary X-ray unit.

County Manager E. Robert Stallings is credited with the idea of installing the old unit in the new jail at the Hall of Justice. Dr. Walter Gaines, TB Association president and a radiologist in private practice, declared: "San Mateo County is fortunate to have officials concerned with the health of all the people. From experience in similar jail X-ray installations we know that there is a high incidence of TB among jail inmates—about 10 times as high as for the general population."

Dr. James M. Bodie, county tuberculosis control officer, will read all the jail X-rays, then prisoners with suspicious minifilms will be brought to the chest clinic in San Mateo for a larger film. Anyone who is discovered to have TB will be sent someplace for medical treatment by the court—probably within a prison with a TB ward, or perhaps in a regular sanatorium if the offense is a mild one.

Dr. Bodie explained the necessity for removing a prisoner with TB from the county jail: "One person with TB in a crowded tank would quickly infect the 8 or 10 prisoners in the cell. This is of course a threat to the jailers as well as the prisoners.

Sunday School Promotion Day In Broadmoor

Sunday School Promotion will be observed this Sunday at 9:30 a.m. at Broadmoor Presbyterian Church.

Pupils graduating from one department to another will receive certificates. Pupils graduating from the primary department to the junior department will receive bibles. Members of the junior and youth choirs having recorded good attendance for the past year will receive pins from the director, Delmar Servey.

The Sunday School has an enrollment of 550 with 50 teachers and officers. The usual double sessions at 9:30 and 11 a.m. will begin after the single summer session on September 20. The 9:30 a.m. coffee class for adults will also begin on this date. The lesson curriculum theme for the ensuing year will be "The Church."

At this Sunday's 11 a.m. worship service there will be a dedication of teachers, parents and congregation to the responsibilities of Christian education. Adults are invited to these events and new pupils to the Sunday School which begins with three year olds. The Rev. Herbert Tweedie is the pastor.

GRANT COMPANY STORES REPORT RECORD SALES

W. T. Grant Company sales of $204,573,046 reached a new all-time high for the six-month period ending July 31, 1959. This is an increase of 15.1% over the six months of 1958.

Net earnings for the 1959 period were $1,157,999 or 31 cents per share of common stock. In the first half of 1958, there were no earnings per share on the common stock.

The company's semi-annual report notes that while the improvement in first half 1959 earnings over those of 1958 is exceptional, it is not particularly significant as most of the company's profit is earned in the last half of the year. In the first half of 1958 when net earnings were only $171,424, excellent second half earnings raised the total year's earnings to $9,850,253 or $3.71 per share of common stock outstanding at the year end. While an increase in earnings for the year is expected, the full year's earnings will not show the unusual percentage increase over last year registered in the first half of 1959.

During the first half of 1959, the company continued its steady expansion program.

Crusade Names Drive Chairman For Brisbane

Mrs. M. F. Jensen of 262 Kings road, Brisbane, has been named by Mrs. Robert Whitehead as the United Crusade residential chairman for Brisbane. Mrs. Whitehead is the residential chairman for the northern part of San Mateo County.

An artist, wedding counselor and decorator, Mrs. Jensen still has found time to contribute to numerous community enterprises. Founder of the Brisbane Garden Club, she also is credited with starting the Girl Scout Brownies in Brisbane.

Currently she is president of the Brisbane Leaders Club and a director of the Brisbane Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Jensen has served as president and welfare chairman of the Brisbane Parent-Teachers Association, and as Founders Day chairman and assistant health chairman for the 17th District.

For a period of five years, she served as a Den Mother in the Cub Scouts.

Mrs. Jensen is a firm believer in the United Crusade as a "protection against constant soliciting for necessary welfare funds." In the past, she has helped on all the United Crusade drives.

Mrs. Jensen has been a resident of Brisbane for 22 years. She and Mr. Jensen have three boys.

United Crusade funds are used to sustain 23 social, health and welfare agencies in San Mateo County. The annual campaign which starts on September 28 has a total goal of $608,811.

Religious School For Judea Youth To Begin Sunday

According to Mrs. Harold Skootsky, principal of Congregation Judea Religious School, classes will commence this Sunday morning, September 13, at 10 a.m. in Westlake Elementary School, Fieldcrest and Lake Vista drives, Daly City. Over 300 students will return to their studies at this time. All parents who have not as yet registered their children may do so at the opening session on Sunday morning. Children 3½ years of age and upward are eligible for enrollment.

The Week-day Hebrew School, affiliated with the Bureau of Jewish Education, will begin on Monday, September 14, at 4 p.m., with classes to be held in the Temple House, 95 South Mayfair avenue, Westlake. All children 9 years of age and over are eligible for enrollment. There will be three classes, divided into Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced Hebrew. It is strongly urged that all parents who are interested in having their sons prepared for Bar Mitzvah enroll them in Hebrew School at this opening session. At least two years of preparation is necessary for the Bar Mitzvah ceremony. For further information call the Temple Office, PL 5-6362.

Congregation Judea was the first reform congregation to have instituted a regular weekday Hebrew school as part of its congregational activities.

Rabbi and Mrs. Irving F. Reichert presented a buffet supper for the faculty of the Religious School at their home. At the same time, a special meeting was held to coordinate religious school activities for the coming year.

Harold Skootsky, president of Congregation Judea Men's Club, invites all parents of children enrolled in the Religious School to its first Sunday Morning Breakfast, to be held at 10 a.m. in the Temple House, 95 South Mayfair, on September 13. This will be a regular feature under the auspices of the Men's Club to promote good fellowship and stimulate an interest in the activities of Congregation Judea. The procedure will be that parents, after bringing their children to the Religious School, will then join the Men's Club at breakfast in the Temple House.

DALY CITY Police Chief Roland Petrocchi is sure to get at least one pin down in the Police Athletic League bowling tournament being held at Swanson's Westlake Bowl. He has the expert help of Alex Bastedo, son of PAL policeman-coach Les Bastedo and a future member of PAL, and Keith Stoller makes certain the pin is in position. The tournament runs through September 19. Jim Grealish, Bowl manager, says the police may achieve their tourney goal of $5000 for the kids' sports programs.

TRANSFERS AND MATERNITY

38 Jefferson Elementary District Teachers Lost

Thirty-eight teachers holding contracts with Daly City's Jefferson Elementary District won't be back for the new term starting next week, Superintendent Richard Foster informed trustees last Thursday.

Of the 38 resignations received since last June, 32 were from women instructors. Reasons for the resignations primarily were that their husbands were moving elsewhere, pregnancy, and transfers to other school districts. None of the 38 expressed dissatisfaction with the local district, Foster reported to the board.

Bessie Sharp, with nine years in the district, had the most teaching time here of those who resigned. She is retiring from the profession.

Jack Thornton, with just one year's experience here, has moved out to accept a vice principal's job elsewhere.

Others resigning were: George Boyle, Robert Brown, Gwen Campbell, Lupe Clemente, Phyllis Danforth, Betty Doerksen, Helen Dubacher, Shirley Eddy, Elaine Fissel, Lorraine Greenspan, Harold Hastings, Patricia Hill.

Eloise Johnson, Marilyn Johnson, Marjorie Kiviat, Alisa Laaksonen, Lorraine Lee, Chrysanthe Lekas, Mary Lorey, Eleanor Luppino, Billy Marcott, Jacqueline Matthews, Iris McCay, Carolyn Miller, Edna Morrison, Dean Nicholas, Helen Paris.

Loretta Payne, Joyce Porter, Alice Quist, Gertrude Reynaud, Ann Rowe, Norman Sanden, Nancy Shankman, Jane Testa and Patricia Woerz.

FORMER DALY CITY PREPS READY FOR COLLEGE SPORTS

By LOU LUCIA

With the opening whistle of football officials ready to shriek the spiralling ball into the air, local lads are getting ready at new schools to start the season.

Joe Verducci, San Francisco State Coach, is counting on Jeff High's Tom Cloutier and Jack Thur to provide line heft for the Gators in the future. Unfortunately for the Gators, both will sit out one year of play since both are transfers. Tom was at University of California and Thur at Michigan State.

Cloutier, 6-4 and 210 pounds, was an All-Peninsula end for Joe McGrath's localites and spent two years at Cal, one with the Rose Bowl trippers.

Tom is majoring in pharmacy and expects to receive his degree in four more years.

Thur, a second string Michigan State center last year, is counted on to become one of the best linemen in the Far Western Conference since Floyd Peters, who is currently with the pro Cleveland Browns.

Working out for the frosh team at San Francisco State are Westmoor's fullback and center, Bob Roller, and All-Peninsula guard Paul Giomi.

Gary Ryan, former Jeff basketball, football and baseball star,is getting ready for his sophomore year at San Jose State. He was most proficient in basketball during his opening year for the Spartababes frosh team.

Bob Berry, footballer and third sacker for Jeff, is attending City College of San Francisco where he hopes to make his bow in higher level sports.

College of San Mateo will welcome a host of former Daly City athletes. Baseballers are Ino Patron, second baseman, Eddie Leveroni, pitcher, and Leroy Franzoia, third baseman, all formerly of Jefferson.

Dennis Marc, 6-5 center, who set scoring marks for the Mateans in basketball and was an All-Big Eight choice last year returns to again menace opponents. Two footballers, Pete Garcia and Paul Tapia may also attend the Peninsula college.

Ross Holmgren, former Westmoor High basketball sparkplug, has enrolled at City College of San Francisco where he hopes to continue his cage capers. Ross is one of the finest small players we've seen in many a season.

Venturi, Rosburg Favored In Golf Championships

Bob Rosburg, the PGA champion, and Ken Venturi, one of the tour's leading money winners, head a list of 33 other pros who signed today to compete in the Golden Gate Open at Harding Park, September 21-27.

Rosburg of Palo Alto and Venturi, now playing out of Palo Alto Hills, were joined by four other local pros — Tony Lema of San Leandro, Alex Sutton of San Mateo, Buddy Sullivan of Yuba City and Don Whitt, former Alameda star now representing Borrego Springs, Calif.

The list also includes such leading PGA tourists as Doug Ford, George Bayer, Wes Ellis, Don Fairfield, Marty Furgol, Fred Hawkins, Paul Harney, Don January, Tom Nieporte and Doug Sanders.

Three foreign stars are among the early entrants — Bruce Crampton of Sydney, Australia, Brian Wilkes of Johannesburg, South Africa and Jerry Magee, the young Canadian star from Toronto.

Venturi and Rosburg, both of whom know the Harding Park course well, undoubtedly will be among the early favorites.

California ranks first in the Nation as a turkey producing State.

Salmon Fishers Issued Reminder

The Department of Fish and Game reminded California ocean salmon fishermen today that after September 15, when the commercial salmon season closes, all sport-caught ocean salmon must be dye-marked on both sides. The regulation is intended to discourage commercial sale of sport-caught salmon.

Each salmon must be marked from head to tail on both sides with a half-inch wide stripe of bright red. It can be of any permanent USP certified food or drug coloring.

Ordinary food coloring sold in most grocery stores will probably work OK, the Department said. Some manufacturers are producing a special dye packaged in dauber bottles. These are sold in bait shops in major ocean salmon fishing areas and some party boats provide them.

The dye-marking regulation does not apply to salmon that are caught in inland waters.

South City Gains Football Offense, Loses Defense

Ray DeJonge, South San Francisco High football coach, must be saying to himself, as the popular song goes, "It's got to be this or that."

DeJonge last year praised the defensive team though well aware his offensive unit was not up to par. This season he looks for a strong offensive team—but where did the defense go? He believes it will be a long hard struggle for his team to match the 1956 season when his Warriors tied with Capuchino for the league championship.

Starting his tenth season at South Ctiy, DeJonge formerly played in two Rose Bowl games for Pappy Waldorf's University of California teams at a guard spot.

An Albany resident, he commutes each day and hopes that he gets as much mileage out of the 25 boys who will be on the squad when the season starts. Thirty are currently trying out for his football team.

His five returning lettermen are guards George Baptista and Roger Jordan, quarterback Clyde Haddock, end Don Bullard and halfback Rich Zinn. Baptista and Haddock are juniors, the other three are seniors.

The Warriors' schedule for 1959 is:

Tamalpais at Marin JC, September 25; Riordan at Kezar, October 2; Hillsdale there, October 16; Westmoor at home, October 23; San Mateo at home, October 30; Burlingame there, November 6; Mills at home, November 13; Capuchino there, November 20; Jefferson at home, November 25.

The Black Canyon of the Gunnison River and the Royal Gorge of the Arkansas River, are 1000 to 1500 feet deep.

There are two major forest regions in California, the redwood region on the north coast and the pine region extending the full length of the Sierra Nevada and along the inner coast ranges.

ANOTHER ALL-STAR GAME

PAL BASEBALLERS AGAIN TOP LEAGUE

Daly City's PAL Yankees beat the Giants, 3-2, and moved into fourth place by a ½ game margin to again crowd all four Daly City teams into the top four spots of the DC-South SF Baseball League.

In other action last week, the Red Sox continued their non-contested hold on first place by shutting out the Braves while the Lieutenants beat the Chiefs, also in a shutout, 3-0, and the Inspectors won their first game of the season, 5-0.

Daly City's PAL teams first meet the South San Francisco clubs in an all-star game on Friday, September 18, and then meet Redwood City in another "top performer" contest at 2 p.m. on Saturday, September 26, at Westlake Park.

Cal Sportsmen Warned About Fire Hazards

Fish and Game Director William E. Warne today sent an urgent appeal to sportsmen to use extreme caution while hunting or fishing this fall.

The apepal came as Governor Edmund G. Brown announced he will not close down the state's timbered areas to hunting, fishing and vacationing as logging industry and State Forestry representatives asked him to do earlier in the week.

A high fire hazard exists throughout the state, but it apparently is not grave enough at this time to warrant a statewide fire closure.

BIG BOWLING TOURNEY HAS WEEK TO GO

By Leon Cohn

That age old adage, "A rolling stone gathers no moss," is presumed to be as true today. But in these modern times a rolling ball does gather the moss. And the moss we speak of is the prizes that may be won in the Daly City Police Athletic League bowling tournament being held at Swanson's Westlake lanes.

The tourney ends on September 19 and the cost of bowling three games is $2.75.

The money is used to defray the expenses of uniforms for the youths of Daly City so that they many enjoy the sports of their choice.

Fred Bertetta, chairman of the PAL tournament, is very optimistic. With heavy play expected over the next two weekends, the goal of raising $4000 is almost assured. As half of this amount is in the till at the present time.

To describe the prizes that will go the victors would require more space. But to appreciate their value they must be seen. At least the bowlers do. They realize that a single pin can mean the difference between one of the major awards and a lesser prize.

Ed Guttke, the men's lead with 736, had a little scare Bob Crockford and Hiro Se tachi took dead aim at his se ies. But when the smo cleared Ed remained on top Bob finished with 732 whi Hiro produced a 729 three gan total with handicap.

'Every Good Guy Gives' Is Slogan For Annual United Crusade Drive

By Servart Ojakian

"Every Good Guy Gives" is the slogan adopted for this year's United Crusade drive and will soon be displayed in newspapers, posters, window cards, solicitor's brochures, and television announcements.

The smiling cartoon-type chap with angel-wings, halo over-head and proudly displaying his crusade torch, is happy to have pledged his own fair share.

The good guy is standing on top of a glum guy's head who no doubt is bothered by his conscience for not making a pledge or not giving enough.

Every good guy wants to give the United way for that's the common sense way to support 263 services—nearly all the voluntary health, welfare and youth agencies in the five Bay Area counties.

For every $100 given last fall, citizens committee divided it this way:

Local units of national organizations such as Red Cross, USO, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, etc.—$25.62.

Services to families and children — Catholic, Protestant, Jewish welfare agencies, children's services, Travelers Aid, etc.—$24.40.

Youth programs — Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, YMCA, YWCA, Boys' Clubs, CYO, etc.—$24.28.

Community health services—Hospitals, and clinics, visiting nurse care, etc.—$8.30.

Community planning and budgeting — Studies of social agencies to assure efficient management and to fit services to changing Bay Area needs — $3.86.

Unpaid pledges — due to deaths, unemployment, moving away, etc.—$3.

Miscellaneous allocations — 63 cents.

Costs of raising the funds—Year 'round administration-public information in all 5 counties—$9.91.

In San Mateo County, 25 such agencies are supported by Crusade funds. Many of us here derive immediate benefits from this type of aide. For example, the Daly City-Colma Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts receive a portion of their working capital from the United Crusade. The Red Cross, a partner with the United Crusade, benefits our area by making possible the summer swimming classes at Jefferson High School.

This year San Mateo County is expected to collect $608,664 during the fall campaign for funds and it is the hope of the Crusade staff and volunteer workers that everyone will give generously.

California produced 203,000 cwt of garlic in 1958, valued at $2,094,000.

Sicilian fishermen brought the "Monterey type" of fishing boat to San Francisco's Fisherman's Wharf.

COME AND GET IT—A closer look at the pretty girls and fine wines which will be featured at the California State Fair and Exposition, that is! Linda Marie Hines, Maid of Sacramento County, poses at the Wine Industry exhibit which will be on display during the State Fair, September 2-13. Special tribute will be paid to the industry on Wine Day, Tuesday, September 8, and a Wine Queen will be crowned at luncheon that day in Governor's Hall.

Heralding a new "breakthrough" in automotive design, the Ford Falcon — shown here with three views of the Fordor model — is all-new from the ground up. Functionally styled, the Falcon has a full length sculptured side panel that adds grace to its lines and provides greater strength for doors and side panels. The Falcon's all-new 90-horsepower six-cylinder engine is designed to give up to 50 per cent better gasoline mileage than standard cars.

Dear-Killing Dogs Destroyed Up North

Two dogs that killed fawns while running deer in Del Norte County were ordered destroyed by the courts. The owner of one of the dogs, William R. Ritchie Jr., Crescent City, paid a $25 fine. The owner of the other animal, John G. Jeppson, also of Crescent City, was put on one year probation.

The arresting officer in both cases was Fish and Game Warden Donald G. Gastineau. The judge in both cases was Alyce Moseley.
